The members of the Womelsdorf Community Library met for their monthly board meeting at the Library, Thursday February 9, 1989. Members present, president Rebecca Rohrbach, vice president Larve Hartman, Anna Coffey, Janet Kehrl, Pat Hetrick and Lori Haak.

The Treasurer reported a balance of $932.30 in our account as of the end of January.

Ella Klopp gave the Library a copy of Mary Moore's minutes, from when the Library first started, to do with what we wish. She also agreed on the book by George Meiser, to be donated in Mary's name. On the same matter the Cultural Heritage agreed to donate the book, A Mountain Adventure in Mary's memory.

New business: Story hour will start on February 14th. with Cindy Ottenrider leading the program.

The Library has received the first few issues of books from the Junior Literary Guild monthly book club, which money was donated by Betty Keppley.

The Library received a donation of $475 from the Friends of the Reading Library to purchase an item or items which the Library needs. Pat Hetrick suggested we use the money to purchase the 1888-1988 Deluxe National Geographic Index and atlas. The remaining money ~~spent~~ to be used to frame the Library's copies of the Doors and Windows of Reading. All members present agreed.

Subjects for the March newsletter were discussed. Included were the Summer Reading Program, beginning Tuesday July 11th 10:30 AM-11:30, in the Library. Suggestions for National Library Week, April 9-15th were discussed. Two suggestions were, a Quilt display provided by the Reading Library, also having Earl Ibach talk about and sign his new book Along The Tulpenhocken River. Larve Hartman is looking into these possibilities. over
