Treasurer reported a balance of $1,829.60 as of Dec 31, 1989.

Discussion concerning the purchase of, or the investment of, the $250.00 received for Mary E. Moore memorial followed. It was decided to have the treasurer check with the bank regarding a savings account or whether to keep it in the checking account, whichever gives best interest.

The resignation of Rebecca Rohrbach will appear in the January 26th copy of the Book Ends. The book "Discover America" was purchased by the Board members and given to the Library in honor of Rebecca's service to the Library.

Following discussion it was decided to set a maximum late fee of $5.00. Volunteers are to be told that no one must pay more than this amount for overdue books.

The new typewriter will be placed on the stand and those who type will learn how to use it.

It was suggested by the maintenance employee of the Borough Hall to place a large runner either plastic or rug at the entrance to the Library to absorb and collect the salt from the outside during bad weather. Lorraine Haak moved, seconded by Anna Coffey to purchase some satisfactory covering. Lorraine will "shop" for something.
