DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

THE LAST THING HE TOLD ME BY LAURA DAVE

- 1) Owen's note to Hannah says—protect her. We know he's talking about Bailey and protecting her from the past. Why didn't Owen write more to Hannah? Do you believe he expected her to eventually figure out his past?
- 2) On that same note, why did Owen conceal his past to both Hannah and Bailey? How would you react if your spouse deceived you about the central details of their life?
- 3) Why was Bailey so cold to Hannah in the beginning? When did she begin to warm up to her?
- 4) Hannah's parents pretty much deserted her and she was raised by her grandfather. So she was not used to being part of a family unit. Let's talk about how Hannah and Bailey eventually became each other's "found" family.
- 5) Hannah eventually realizes that Owen has connections to Austin, Texas. So she takes Bailey there to see if they could find out the truth about the past. Do you agree with Hannah's decision to go to Austin? What would you have done if you were Hannah?
- 6) We eventually find out that Owen lived a completely different life than what was portrayed. His name is actually Ethan and Bailey's is Kristin. He took Bailey away from Austin after testifying against his father-in-law and the crime syndicate. What did you think about all these reveals?
- 7) Should Hannah have agreed to go into witness protection program with Owen and Bailey or did she make the right decision in making a deal with Nicholas so Bailey could keep her identity?
- 8) Do you think Bailey ever managed a relationship with Nicholas or any her cousins?
- 9) The last chapter is titled Five Years Later. Or Eight. Or Ten. Why such a vague timeframe? Does this mean that Hannah sees a glimpse of Owen ever so often? Or was that the first time she's truly seen him? Is there ever a chance for Owen to reunite with Hannah and Bailey?
- 10) Jennifer Garner is going to play Hannah in the TV version of this story. What are your thoughts on the casting? What elements of the book do you think they'll include in the show?
